

If you work regularly with U18s you should stay up to date with safeguarding training. What safeguarding training should you do?

Do you work regularly with U18s as a DBS Co-ordinator/verifier, Development Co-ordinator, Chairman, coach (with workshop qualification(s) or no qualifications, Umpire, Parent Helper, Team Captain/Nominated player of an adult team with U18's)? This list is not exhaustive

Yes

England Hockey's online safeguarding and protecting young people in hockey course provides basic awareness of safeguarding and can be found here. It has a cost of £10.

*If you have completed safeguarding training in a professional capacity (e.g. teacher, doctor, social worker, police etc.) in the last three years you will not be required to complete the SPC course to book onto TTL

Are you a welfare officer?

Yes

Have you completed any safeguarding training in the last three years?*

No

In the first instance you should attend a face to face UK Coaching 'Safeguarding and Protecting Children' workshop. Details can be found here.
Once you have completed the face to face SPC you should attend 'Time to Listen'

All of England Hockey's safeguarding guidance can be found at www.englishockey.co.uk/safe

Yes

Welfare Officers should attend a Time To Listen (TTL) interactive workshop. This is hockey specific, is a three hour workshop and costs £20. Alternatively you can attend a multi-sport TTL. Dates of upcoming workshops can be found here.

Are you a qualified coach? (old L4, L3, L2 Coach Award or club/sessional qualification)

Yes

You should complete the UK Coaching 'Safeguarding and Protecting Children' (SPC) workshop every three years.
Are you up to date? There are two options for renewal.

Face to face SPC workshop – To renew your safeguarding education and training you can attend another face to face SPC workshop. Details can be found here.

SPC online renewal - For those who have attended the face-to-face 'Safeguarding and Protecting children workshop' within three years, you can renew this training online here.

You should renew your safeguarding training every three years