ROLE DESCRIPTION

ENGLAND HOCKEY PRESIDENT

The President is the senior representative of England Hockey for all official occasions. The President is therefore required to be familiar with all the policies of the company and have been briefed on initiatives and progress within the organisation.

Responsibilities

The President will, at the invitation of the Board, act as leader of the England Hockey delegation to the FIH Congress and the EHF General Assembly. Each takes place every other year and they are held in different locations.

The President (or agreed deputy) acts on behalf of the England national squads at official international events at home or abroad as appropriate. The President also acts as host, on behalf of England Hockey, at international events staged in this country.

The President (or agreed deputy) represents England Hockey at national domestic competitions and events in England. He or she should present the prizes at such events.

The President would make him or herself available for attendance at Regional, County and Club events as appropriate.

The President is Chairperson of the Annual General Meeting and of any Extraordinary General Meetings.

The President's report/message will be included in the Annual report and other documents as required.

The President will occasionally be invited to attend official functions on the company's behalf.

To enable the President to be fully briefed, the President is also expected to attend Board meetings (6 times annually) in a non voting observer capacity, and is a member of the Region's Consultative Committee (4 times annually).

The President chairs the Remuneration Committee.

Summary

The President fulfils a vital representative role for the Sport. The role requires dedication and a passion for the sport. Diplomacy, tact, and a good awareness of domestic and international issues are required. Above all, the President must act in the best interests of England Hockey and its members.

Time Commitment

The President's duties require c 30 days per annum.

Expenses

The position is an honorary one, but reasonable expenses, in line with England Hockey's expense policy will be paid.
