Background

England Hockey (the Company) as the National Association in England is subject to the Statutes and Regulations of, and as a member of the Fédération Internationale de Hockey (FIH) and European Hockey Federation, to be the sole and exclusive authority for the governance of hockey in England. England Hockey is also the UK Sports Councils recognised governing body for hockey in England.

- a) At the Company 2020 Annual General Meeting held on 15 September 2020 a resolution was passed authorising the Directors of the Company to implement the proposals set out in the paper The Structure Fit for the Future. The Company in its role as the sole and exclusive authority for the governance of hockey in England has the right to prescribe how the provisions set out in The Structure Fit for the Future will be carried out.
- b) The Structure Fit for the Future paper envisages that the England Hockey Officiating Club, Areas and Sub-Areas will take over the delegated functions of the Company from the Regional Associations, County Associations, Umpiring Associations and any other bodies affiliated directly to the Company.
- c) The Board of Directors (the Board) of the Company under its articles of association (Articles) will appoint Committees and issue Regulations and Rules to carry out the Reorganisation to implement The Structure Fit for the Future. The Board has the right to update these Regulations and Rules as required to support the process of the reorganisation by issuing revised Regulations and Rules.
- d) To ensure consistency, the Area Companies will all have the same Articles of Association (apart from small differences for the Objects Article and the 2021 Annual General Meetings between the New Area Companies and the existing incorporated Regional Associations), Area Regulations and governance documentation and as appropriate the Sub-Areas will have the same articles of association/ constitution and governance documentation.
- e) The Board will arrange for the formation of the New Area Companies with England Hockey as the initial subscriber.
- f) The Midland Company and West Company as members of the Company have to comply with the Company's Articles, Regulations and Rules including the Transition Regulations. To comply with the Transition Regulations the Midland Company and West Company will hold a General Meeting to change their names and articles of association to the Company prescribed names and Articles of Association. If the Midland Company and/or West Company do not pass special resolutions to change their names and articles of association the Board will arrange for the formation of two new Companies with the Company as the initial subscriber with the Articles of Association which will take over the functions, assets and liabilities of the Midland Company and West Company under the Transition Regulations.
- g) The Regional Associations and Umpiring Associations have all appointed management committees whose objectives include complying with the Articles, Regulations and Rules including the Transition Regulations. Consequently, the Regions Associations and Umpiring Associations management committees can transfer assets and liabilities to the Areas to comply with the Transition Regulations without holding a general meeting or annual general meeting.
- h) The Company will issue guidance to the Regional Associations, Umpiring Associations, leagues, County Associations and any other bodies affiliated directly to the Company on the treatment of funds within those organisations at the cessations and or winding up of those organisations.
